Let fleecy flocks the hills adorn, and valleys smile with wavy corn.*

Let the shrill trumpet cease, nor other sound, but nature's songsters wake the cheerful morn.]

Notices

Appointment of priest-in-charge: Unfortunately, owing to illness of Bishop Richard, his meeting with the preferred candidate had to be postponed. We now expect to be able to make our announcement next Sunday 14th October.

Harvest Festival: Thank you to all who helped decorate the church for our harvest services. As usual the end result has made our church look very seasonal and added to its beauty. All the fresh produce used will be sold after the morning service today, so please buy and support our local food bank.

Traidcraft has begun a 30-day consultation period on the possible closure of its food trading arm. They blame a weak exchange rate and a challenging retail environment for their difficulties. If the closure goes ahead, they will cease trading in December. We are not owed any money by Traidcraft, but will not make new orders until the picture is clearer. In the meantime, please continue to purchase items from the stall. Thank you so much for all the support you have given so far.

Parkside Post will be ready to be delivered next Sunday 14th October. Please take a round and consider delivering any which have no 'owners'. We need to get our news around the parish asap. Thank you in advance. Joan Endean (Editor)

Thank you to all those who have given so generously to the Wimbledon Park War Memorial Restoration Appeal. The stone cleaning has now been done and restoration work should be finished in time for the rededication on 11th November. We still need more money to meet the total cost. Please visit the website at www.stpaulsparkside.org.uk under What's New / News for details of how to give.
