Music today

Choir during communion

*Dark the night lay, wild and dreary moaned the wind by Melchior's tower,
Sad the sage, while pondering weary o'er the doom of Judah's power:
When behold, the clouds are parted, westward, lo, a light gleams far!
Now his heart's true quest has started, for his eyes have seen the star.*

*Now, Lord Jesus, hear our calling, deep the darkness where we stray;
How shall we, mid boulders falling, know for thine the rough-hewn way?
Lo, a light shines down to guide us where thy saints and angels are!
Now we know thy love beside us, for our eyes have seen the star.*

Words: Rev W. Lloyd trans. from the Welsh by Katherine Roberts (1877-1962) Music: Philip Norman

Organ & piano

Organ before the service: Scene at Presepio: I Magi (Scenes at the crib: The Wise Men) by Oreste Ravanello (1871-1938)

Piano end of the service: Caravan by Duke Ellington (1899-1974) & Juan Tizol (1900-1984). [Brilliant sight-reader, trombonist & arranger Tizol brought a Latin touch to Duke Ellington's band, joining in 1920 having travelled from his native Puerto Rico as an "illegal" stowaway.]

Induction celebration for Rev Susan Bolen

The Induction of our new Priest-in-Charge, Rev Susan Bolen, by the Bishop of Kingston will take place at 7.30 pm on Tuesday 5th February 2019. It will be followed by a bring-and-share supper in the Community Centre. Please come and bring friends to help us lay on a great welcome for Susan. (This Supper will replace the usual bring-and-share lunch that we normally have on the Feast of St Paul, towards the end of January.) A photo and short biography are on the website at w: <http://www.stpaulsparkside.org.uk/wordpress/rev-susan-bolen-appointed-next-priest-in-charge-of-st-pauls/> and on the noticeboard at the back of the church.

Notices

Thank you to all the many people who contributed to make our Christmas services at St Paul's such a success. We have enjoyed wonderful music to enhance our worship, in a beautifully decorated church, with warm and generous hospitality. Over the five services held between Sung Communion on Sunday 23rd December and Christmas Morning, we had over 400 attendees at St Paul's.

In addition, many choirs and schools have used our church as the venue for their festive events during December. Thanks to all those who gave their time to support them with logistics and set-up, and especially to Chris Wright.

Food Bank: Many thanks to all those who contributed to our Christmas collection. The donations were hugely appreciated by both organisers and guests alike.

Is there anyone who would be able to do some simple sewing and mending for Betty Williams from time to time? Please speak with Betty or Pauline Wright if you are able to help her in this way.

St Paul's is currently in an interregnum, which means there is no resident vicar.
